Project Manager – Construction

Description

SCI, an American based manufacturing company that specializes in providing high performance furniture to the restaurant and food service industry is hiring a Construction Project Manager to work in their Sales Department. SCI has earned its reputation as one of the nation's top suppliers of high-quality custom commercial and hospitality millwork and furniture. The company has been experiencing steady sales growth due to superior quality & world-class customer service. Our manufacturing philosophy is to build everything on site, so that we may control quality and offer the shortest lead-time in the industry.

Responsibilities

Core duties and responsibilities include the following:

- Understanding the scope of work of a new project (what we want to quote, what we are capable of building, review customer plan sets).
- Submit costing request for the project if needed to our estimation department.
- Assist customer service on creating quotes (correct descriptions, quantities, etc.).
- Attend site visits for field dimensions and project schedule coordination.
- Communicate ship date changes, custom item details and other pertinent information to the Director of Operations.
- Help communicate design intent to the engineers to ensure no details are overlooked.
- Assist in getting custom or long lead time materials on order.
- Quality review product on the floor to make sure the customer receives what they ordered.
- Revise orders with customer service as needed.
- Oversee installation as needed.
- Types of Orders that require project management are heavy millwork jobs, on site measurements and coordination, new brand store, large college orders with multiple buyouts.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree (B. A.) in (Engineering or Construction preferred) and a minimum of three years related experience and/or training; or equivalent combination of education and experience.
- A detail-oriented professional with excellent written and verbal communication skills and a proven track record of working well as part of a team and as a self-starter to work independently.
